2011 Tax Year Federal Disclosure Statement

Under current IRS rules, GVC Financial Inc and its employees may not disclose any tax information to anyone without your written prior consent. While this has always been our policy at GVC, the new expanded definitions are more restrictive in that Anne Halpin is considered a third party contractor who prepares or assists in the preparation of tax returns that now fall under the disclosure rules even if she only does minor work. To avoid disrupting our normal tax service, we are asking that you sign the form below now to give us the flexibility of using her services without having to stop work to get the form signed.

Federal law requires this consent form be provided to you. Unless authorized by law, we cannot disclose, without your consent, your tax return information to third parties for purposes other than the preparation and filing of your tax return and, in certain limited circumstances, for purposes involving tax return preparation. If you consent to the use or disclosure of your tax return information, Federal law may not protect your tax return information from further use or distribution.

You are not required to complete this form. Because our ability to disclose your tax return information to another tax return preparer affects the service that we provide to you and its cost, we may decline to provide you with service or change the terms of service that we provide to you if you do not sign this form. If you agree to the disclosure of your tax return information, your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you do not specify the duration of your consent, your consent is valid for one year.

Duration of consent (optional): _____

I, _____, authorize Richard Crouse, EA to disclose my tax information to Anne K. Halpin, EA for the purpose of assisting GVC Financial Inc. in the preparation of my/our tax return(s).

If you believe your tax return information has been disclosed or used improperly in a manner unauthorized by law or without your permission, you may contact the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484, or by email at complaints@tigta.treas.gov.
